

Herald Sun

THURSDAY, MARCH 21, 2013

GUNS N' ROSES SALUTE THEIR BEER MATE

Reporter : Jackie Epstein

■ Guns n' Roses left Melbourne with a unique gift after their weekend shows.

Frontman Axl Rose took a shine to the special 'Guns n' Roses Beer Tower' created for the band by Melbourne business Aussie Beer Tubes.

So much so that they insisted it take pride and place on stage over their two Melbourne Shows.

Rose poured beer for himself and the crowd during performances at the Sydney Myer Music Bowl.

Axl interrupted a song to thank creator, Steve Davies, who brought what he described as the "best gift ever".

Guns n' Roses have asked for more Beer Tubes for their Brisbane Shows.

